DNA Foundation

The Delta Nu Alpha Foundation announces the award of three transportation and logistics scholarships.

The 2017 recipients are:

- Karolina Kusza – Wayne State University
- Kenneth Mazur – Wayne State University
- Puitha Kaspian – Michigan State University

Since its inception in 1987, the Foundation has provided numerous scholarships, research grants, and funding for the Journal of Transportation Management. The Foundation provides continuous support of education in a changing industry.

Scholarships are granted annually to undergraduate students pursuing careers in transportation, logistics and the supply chain. The applicants must be currently studying in schools, colleges, and universities with established programs in these fields.

Recent recipients have included students at Michigan State University, Penn State University, Iowa State University, Missouri State University, Maryland and the University of Tennessee.

Applicants are judged on financial need, academic success; career commitment, motivation, and plans; recommendation and evaluation by faculty and internship; and experience related to transportation and logistics.
